

Coping

By Audre Lorde

It has rained for five days running
the world is 5 a round puddle
of sunless water
where small islands
are only beginning
to cope
10 a young boy
in my garden
is bailing out water from his flower patch
when I ask him why 15 he tells me
young seeds that have not seen sun forget
and drown easily.